Project Overview:

It will be easier for fans of this series to access information regarding the character abilities which are called “Stand Abilities” in the series, fans will be able to look up these abilities and comment about them and interact with other fans.

Objective and Scope of the Project:

The objective of the project is to create an app that successfully displays information and provide a explorable environment for the said information meanwhile also allowing users to comment and reply. The scope of the project is to include all the currently animated “stands” in this application.

Background and Current Practice:

A fan made detailed wiki page for this series accessible on browsers and there are different kinds of guide mobil e apps existing for different fandoms and different topics.

Potential Customer/User Description

The app is aimed towards users who are interested in in the series, want to check details which they may have missed or did not encounter yet and discuss them. A company which profits from copyrights, merchandising and various other ways using the series may want a system like this built for their customers to use.
